

In this talk, we consider the modified wave operators for Schrödinger equations with time-dependent long-range potentials. Our purpose is to construct modified wave operators by using wave packet transform and to compare them with other modified wave operators. This talk is based on a joint work with Keiichi Kato from Tokyo University of Science.